SIMON'S PHILOSOPHY

Nothing better encapsulates potential and possibility like a seed. Just like this seed the dream of creating a space where everyone can escape the hustle and bustle and indulge in the simple things in life, grew into a possibility. With time, passion and a shared vision, The Cork Tree became a reality. It finds it's character rooted in our love for good company, a cultivating experience and the calming effects of nature. May our small and potential-packed beginnings lead us to reaching new heights and may you share in this dream with us.
